EMAC CONFERENCE

THE STORIES WE CARRY, THE FUTURE WE CREATE

Friday, Dec. 4 | Saturday, Dec. 5

Renaissance Framingham Hotel. 1657 Worcester Road, Framingham

Join the MTA's Ethnically Marginalized Affairs Committee for its 47th annual conference. The theme, "The Stories We Carry, The Future We Create," will be woven throughout the program, from the engaging speakers and workshops to the featured artists. It will be an opportunity to reflect on our own stories and how they shape the way we envision our collective future.

Friday night's performances feature the traditional Cuban tres by Olivia Soler Espinosa and storytelling through bomba and plena traditions with Bomba de Aquí, an Afro Puerto Rican music and dance nonprofit. On Saturday, members can attend two of several workshop offerings and participate in a plenary on immigration justice.
